A T A B L E

Mealplak as a brand offers you creative freedom when designing your hospitality concept. They specialise in a range of concepts from buffet style, canapés, table top, afternoon tea and more. They also offer a bespoke option which makes this brand very niche; you can customise plaks according to your needs from redesigning the shape, changing the thickness, experimenting with colour or you can even make it that bit more personal and include your logo or branding. There are endless opportunities with Mealplak from buying essential pieces to creating your own small capsule to designing a whole new concept to differentiate yourself from the market. Mealplak specialise in modern design and using unique methods to create their amazing pieces, they radiate modernism, colour and personality. If you're looking for something different, modern or to let your creative freedom run wild this is the brand for you.
